

"Very Interesting and exciting program," Gail David
See a unique species that has existed for millions of years

"FULL MOON AT PLUMB BEACH"

Explore the Beach for Mating Horseshoe Crabs

WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 2005

4:00 - 6:30 PM

A SPRING FIELDTRIP FOR TEACHERS AND OTHERS TO EXPLORE THE SALT MARSH AND OBSERVE THE ANNUAL HORSESHOE CRAB MATING
AND MEET SOME OF THE OTHER MARSH INHABITANTS.

INDIVIDUAL STUDENTS WHO ACCOMPANY A TEACHER OR PARENT ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND.

at

PLUMB BEACH

Gateway National Recreation Area

This walk will be led by ALAN ASCHER,
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL-SCIENCE, Port Richmond High School

Dress casually. Old sneakers are recommended.
You will be walking approximately 3/4 mile round trip.
Limited facilities at site.

DIRECTIONS: Plumb Beach is located along the eastbound Belt Parkway between Knapp Street and Flatbush Ave. Bus transportation is available on Knapp Street. You can also walk the bike path from Knapp Street or Flatbush Avenues. We will meet in the parking area in front of the round building.

SPONSORED BY

Environmental Education Advisory Council

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION LEAVE AN E-MAIL MESSAGE AT aascher@nycboe.net